Unit 2, Lesson 1 Notes: Personality v. Character

What or who are you grateful for today?

Color, Car, Character

Name	Color	Car	Character	How do these represent their personalities?

Personality v. Character-- What is the difference between personality and character?

Personality	Character

PERSONALITY VS. CHARACTER

Personality is a Gift set by the age of 6-7.

Character is who you are built by the thousands of choices you make daily.

What choices have you made today that reflect your character?

How so?

FOUR STAGES OF CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT

Stage 1: Unconscious & Unskilled
(I don't know about it so I'm probably not good at it.)

Stage 2: Conscious & Unskilled
(I now know about it, but have not practiced it so I'm probably not as good at it as I could be.)

Stage 3: Conscious & Skilled
(I still know it, but now have practiced it so I'm good at it!)

Stage 4: Unconscious & Skilled
(I have practiced it so much that I don't even have to think about it...It's just who I am – A HABIT!)

The key to developing your character is... PRACTICE!!!

Think about something you're very good at.

Think about how you started being good at it.

When did you hit those stages of development?

How did you become "good" at it?

The thing I'm good at is _____.

Stage 1: How old you were? How did you start? Who helped you or inspired you?

Stage 2: How did you get to this stage? Who help you or inspired you?

Stage 3: How did you know you were at this stage?

Stage 4: How did you know you were at this stage?

Video: The Backwards Bicycle --Using the table below, takes note where you see examples of the Stages.
